My dear Mrs. Bland:

I was rather hoping to have heard from you concerning that oval Indian Peace medal which you showed me while up here. Since you left I have been looking up records and asking advice regarding this, and I feel that I can increase my offer to $175.00 for the medal and the arm piece. We feel that although the other offer was a fair one that this is really a generous one, but we are very anxious to obtain this medal.

Very truly yours,

My dear Sir:-

I had your letter of some weeks ago &
wrote my sister Mrs Evans
in regard to it. but have not heard from her.

I left the medal & ~~box~~
with her when I came west.
& empowered her to make

some disposition of them.

When your letter came
I wrote her if she had not done so. we had decided that we could not take less than $250
for them. & I asked her to call you over the phone & tell you this.

If she has not done so.
& you are still interested
& would give this amount
for them - You might call
her. & if she has not disposed of them. You can tell her that you have had this letter

from me & will take the things.

Mr. Bland & I think we must have ($250) two hundred & fifty dollars for them.

My sister's address is,

Mrs Evan M. Evans.
